Four Torrance Men Participate In Pacific Island Maneuvers

Four Torrance men participated in "Operation Flag Hoist," an amphibious training exercise on the island of Iwo Jima. The operation, which involved thousands of Navy and Marine Corps personnel, was designed to promote the combat efficiency of all participating units. It afforded training in the planning and execution of an amphibious landing under realistic combat conditions. The training exercise took place nine years after the capture of the small Pacific island. The men are Robert W. Browning, boatswain's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne

Technician Arrives In France For Army Duty
 Army Sgt. Raymond A. Boyd, whose wife Grace lives at 24637 Moon St., Lomita, recently arrived in France for duty with the European Communications Zone at La Chapelle. He is an X-ray technician at the U. S. Army Hospital in the French city and was previously assigned to the U. S. Army Hospital at Fort MacArthur. The sergeant has been in the Army since 1945 and holds the Bronze Star Medal and UN and Korean medals.

Patrol Chief Retires After 23 Year Duty
 Chief E. Raymond Cato, commanding officer, Division of Field Operations and a member of the California Highway Patrol for the past 23 years, announced his retirement from active duty on March 31. His action brings to a close an active enforcement career which spans more than 43 years. Legislation abolishing the position of Chief of the California Highway Patrol is now before the Governor for his signature and the job will be filled in the future by an assistant commissioner. B. E. Caldwell, Patrol commissioner has named Fred J. Bly, supervising traffic inspector and veteran of 29 years of Patrol work, as the acting commanding officer of Field Operations.
